BNP PARIBAS REAL ESTATE SELLS RICHEMONT'S MILAN OFFICE TO HINES PAN-EUROPEAN CORE FUND

Milan, March 9th 2015 – Hines Italia SGR S.p.A., on behalf of the Hines European Core Fund (HECF), bought from BNP Paribas Real Estate the Crespi 26 building, the Milan office of the Richemont group's Italian branch. The Richemont Group owns some of the world's most exclusive watchmakers and jewellers, including Cartier, Vacheron Costantin, Van Cleef & Arpels.

Crespi 26 is a Class A office building developed by BNP Paribas Real Estate in Milan’s Maciachini area. The 8,500-square-meter property, which served as the headquarters of a banking group until 2008, was demolished and rebuilt in 2012 as part of a larger renovation program for the Maciachini Business Park, where several international companies, such as Société Générale, Zurich, Levis, and Aegis base their Italian operations. Crespi 26 was developed to the highest international green building standards and was the first in Italy to obtain the HQE certification.

The transaction was finalized with the sale of 100 percent of the company “Via Crespi 26 S.r.l.”, which was wholly owned by BNP Paribas Real Estate. The signing of the title deed represents the last step in the sale of the building—a process that started in December 2014, when the parties entered into a preliminary purchase agreement. The final value of the transaction is €37 million.

Cesare Ferrero, BNP Paribas Real Estate Italy country manager, said, “Crespi 26 serves as a model for the transformation of a disused property into one of the most advanced and sustainable office buildings in Milan. We strongly believe in the need to renovate Italy's existing real estate assets and stand ready to contribute to the country’s urban renewal.”

Hines Italia SGR CEO Manfredi Catella commented, ”Last year, we negotiated acquisitions worth over €1 billion. Crespi 26 marks the first investment of the Hines European Core Fund (HECF) in Italy and demonstrates the renewed interest from long-term international investors in the Italian market. This acquisition is consistent with HECF’s investment strategy, which sets strict criteria for the selection and development of properties, in line with those made by the Italian team of BNP Paribas Real Estate.”

Hines Italia SGR was assisted by PWC and Simonelli Associati as tax advisors and DLA Piper as legal advisor. The technical due diligence process was oversaw by COIMA.

BNP Paribas Real Estate was assisted by Studio Chiomenti – Milan as legal advisor and Studio Pirola Pennuto Zei & Associati – Milan as tax advisor. BNP Paribas Real Estate's Advisory division was instrumental in closing the transaction.
